Shipping Contract Terms and Conditions

1. Definitions: "Carrier" and its employees, agents, parents, subsidiaries, and Companies including any third-party carriers involved in the movement of the vehicle(s) described herein. "Shipper" refers to person or persons identified on this document and for whom the services and carriage are being performed. "Vehicle(s)" refers to the cargo being carried for the Shipper.

2. Delivery and Acceptance Conditions: The shipper shall remove all non-permanent outside mounted luggage or other racks prior to shipment. Shipper shall not deliver Vehicle to Carrier with more than 1/2 tank of fuel on domestic moves and 1/4 tank on international moves. At delivery to Carrier, Shipper must furnish Carrier with the key to the ignition, doors, and trunk. If Shipper has an alarm system, it must be deactivated, except those systems activated by the door lock. In addition to the below disclaimers, limitations, and legal rights, Carrier shall not be liable for: damages or loose parts or special equipment not listed on this document; damage caused by vehicles with non-working or defective brakes; vehicles unable to be driven on and off the transport truck under the vehicle's own power; and repossessed vehicles.

3. Cancellation: If cancellation is received after the Vehicle is dropped off to Carrier or picked up by Carrier, the Shipper will be responsible for a cancellation fee and other transportation or storage fees that may apply. Liability Disclaimers, Limitations and Legal Rights.

4. Carrier is not responsible for consequential damages of any kind, in any way related to this Contract or the relationship between the parties to this document, including damages sought under tort and equity theories, and specifically including, but not limited to, vehicle rentals as a result of delay or damage to the vehicle, or any other reason whatsoever.

5. Personal effects and property shall NOT be left in the vehicle. Carrier is NOT responsible for personal effects or property of any kind in the vehicle. The vehicle must be tendered to Carrier in good running order; otherwise, Shipper may be subject to additional fees. Carrier is NOT responsible for C.D. players and chargers, radar detectors, GPS, navigation systems, stereos, car phones, cassettes, or any other non-stock items.

6. The following items "CANNOT" be transported within the Shipper's vehicle: hazardous materials; corrosive cleaning products; gas containers; plants; paint cans; aerosol cans; propane tank goods.

7. Liability of Carrier and its agents for loss or damage to the vehicle shall be limited only to loss and damage occurred during the transport and while the vehicle was in Carrier or its agent's possession.

8. Carrier shall in no event be liable for acts of GOD, acts of Public Authority, acts of public enemy, acts of Shipper, Road Hazard damage or inherent vice. Shipper agrees that the liability of the carrier for loss or damage to the vehicle is limited to a maximum of $500,000 per shipment, pursuant to 79 U.S.C. 14706. Carrier's limit of liability is $500,000 unless valuation coverage is purchased prior to Carrier's possession. Valuation coverage is available at an additional charge at the time of booking if applicable. Any claim for loss or damage must be noted on the condition report at the time of delivery and delivery and actual notice of loss must be made, in writing and marked "ATTENTION CLAIMS". In the event of paid total loss, the Carrier has, the right to salvage. If the shipper requires the Carrier to assume greater liability, the Shipper must declare a higher value ("Actual Cash Value"), in writing on this document prior to shipment (see Form A, Below).

The shipper will pay in advance additional charges for valuation coverage commensurate with the higher declaration of the Actual Cash Value. Failure to declare a higher "Actual Cash Value" to pay the additional charges associated therewith, in advance, will serve to limit Carrier's liability for any damage or loss to the Vehicle to $500,000

9. Carrier shall not be responsible for any undercarriage damage or damage caused by leaking fluids, nor shall Carrier be responsible for mechanical functions, exhaust assembly, alignment, suspension, any glass, air dams, tires, rims, convertible tops, louvers, spoilers, fog lights, any non-stock parts on the vehicle, freezing of cooling system, or antennas. No claims will be accepted on loose parts or improperly attached parts such as spare tires, bed liners, camper shells, mufflers, or exhaust systems; No claims will be accepted due to acts of God or force majeure or road hazard; No claims on loading and unloading disabled units; No claims on leaks from units such as battery acid, anti-freeze, brake fluid, etc. Additionally, vehicles transported on Open carrier - no claims will be accepted for scratches, dents, scuffs, chips that are caused by unforeseen road conditions on a public road or highway, this includes weather conditions, road debris, potholes, and nails. Road Hazard damage can result in the vehicle's body panels, headlights, taillights, tires, wheels, or windshield to be damaged and it is excluded from coverage.

Any vehicle that is considered or is transported under SALVAGE, PROJECT, RESTORATION or in process of being worked on, will not be a subject to any kind of claim or noted damage regard- less of the condition said or described vehicle at origin unless otherwise is agreed in written form.

Shipper is responsible to obtain additional insurance coverage on its own for all excluded coverage listed in this Shipping Contract Terms and Conditions.

10. Shipper warrants that he will pay all sums due to Carrier for delivered vehicles. C.O.D. payment, if allowed, must be by cash or cashier's check, or money order only payable to the driver at origin or destination. All other retail orders are to be prepaid. The carrier shall have a possessory lien on the vehicle for all sums due but not paid and may refuse to release the Vehicle until payment is rendered or adequate surety for payment is provided, If the Vehicle is not claimed from one of the Carrier's terminals 30 days of arrival, the Carrier will seek legal title to the Vehicle and may sell it or otherwise dispose of the Vehicle as allowed by law.

11. Vehicles remaining at the Carrier's origin or destination terminals may be subject to daily storage fees beyond the five day; with the exception of vehicles accruing storage due to non-payment.

12. Shipper acknowledges that Carriers may subcontract with or direct third-parties, including other carriers and ware housemen, to provide services and carriage under this Contract and that those third-parties shall enjoy the benefit of all legal protection and right under this Contract, including all limitations of liability and defenses afforded the Carrier hereunder.

13. This Contract supersedes all prior written or oral representation of Carrier, constitutes the entire agreement, between Shipper and Carrier, and may not be altered, except in writing and signed by the Carrier's duly authorized representative.

14. This contract shall be governed by Title 49 U.S.C. 14706 and the laws of the State of Illinois where Title 79 is silent. Any action related to this Contract must be brought in the federal court having jurisdiction in and for Chicago, Illinois, or the state court in Chicago, Illinois in the event the federal court lacks jurisdiction. Shipper waives trial by jury.
