If vehicle is rendered for shipment and later becomes non-operational, the fee will be assessed, as well as any other charges incurred to accomplish delivery, including, but not limited to Wrecker, Forklifts, Roll-backs, etc.
8. If vehicle is vandalized either during shipment or while awaiting shipment, Carrier will not be held responsible; owner will have to submit a claim to his/her own insurance or absorb the loss. Shipper agrees that his/her vehicle is insured and his/her insurance has primary responsibility.

Carrier and Shipper will both acknowledge the condition of the vehicle and Shipper will sign and receive a copy of the Bill of Lading. At the time of delivery, Consignee and Carrier will carefully inspect the vehicle for possible damages incurred during transit. Consignee and Carrier will both acknowledge the condition of the vehicle and Consignee will sign and receive a final copy of the Bill of Lading either by paper form or electronic device emailed to customer. Alternately, if Carrier elects, it may obtain an appraisal of the amount of the repairable loss from an independent automobile insurance adjustment company. A qualified body shop shall include any licensed auto body repair shop. Shipper has a right to get a repair estimate from any qualified body shop, however Shipper also agrees to get a repair estimate from an auto body shop that Carrier chooses in the state of shipment destination. Carrier may, at its option, elect to accept a single bid presented by the claimant as the most cost effective settlement available and so elect that bid as the amount of the claim. The payment by the Carrier of any claim presented by Shipper shall be deemed the full and final resolution of the claim. The Shipper shall release Carrier from any further liability involving that same vehicle upon payment of the claim.

4. Total Losses. The Carriers limit of liability for any total loss vehicle shall be the actual cost of any verifiable expenses thereon, including Carriers freight charges thereon. With respect to any total loss vehicle, the Carrier shall not be responsible for any lost profit.
